Aliyah

You helped fulfill biblical prophecy by helping Jews make aliyah (immigrate to Israel) and supporting them before and after their arrival in the Holy Land.

More than 1,000 people have been helped to make aliyah to Israel

Bernaldo and Mary, from a small Jewish community deep in the Peruvian Amazon, made aliyah in June. "We are very happy to finally walk on the same land as our ancestors did thousands of years ago," Bernaldo said.

"Besides feeling connected to Israel, we also want to think about what is best for our son," Bernaldo shares. "We want him to grow up with knowledge and pride about his roots and his identity."

When the war broke out on October 7, "We discussed it," Mary says. "We have confidence in Israel and in God, and that this war will end. We understand that responsibilities go along with becoming Israeli citizens. We want to contribute to the country, and we are going to be there, through the easy times and the not-so-easy ones, like now."

He will raise a banner for the nations and gather the exiles of Israel ...
